Former W. T. Girl and Husband Serve Jungles of Peru

Viola Williams Reifsnyder of the class of 1924, West Texas State College, is a missionary in Peru. For five years her work has been supported by people in and near Canyon. Miss Mary Moss Richardson accepts the contributions of friends and sends the salary check each month in advance. Last year forty-seven different people contributed money to this missionary's undertaking. Two of the forty-seven gave more than $25.00, the other forty-five gave sums ranging from 5c to $25.

Mr. and Mrs. Reifsnyder are working in a jungle section of Peru where white people have almost never penetrated before. For the past year Mrs. Reifsnyder and their little daughter, Ruth, have lived in an Indian hut deep in the jungle. The tiny home is shared with two native girls who assist in the work. Billy, an Indian boy adopted by the Reifsnyders, is now old enough to be away at work, and Bobby, their son, is now in a boarding school. The Indian pupils are taught reading, writing, sewing, and hygiene, in addition to the Bible and hymns.

Although far from the conveniences of civilization the Reifsnyders find their work highly satisfying.

Land Boundaries To Be Disussed

Commissioner Giles Will Meet Land Owners and Local Officials in Canyon

Land boundaries in the Southwest part of Randall county have been in a muddle for many years. Various attempts have been made during the past 30 years to straighten out the lines and make the sections uniform.

Many of the sections have excess land because of the faulty surveys of early days.

Swisher and Castro counties are also affected by this situation.

Bascom Giles, Commissioner of the General Land Office, has written G. G. Foster, county surveyor, suggesting that he come to Canyon in the near future to meet with land owners, County Judges and Tax Assessors of the three counties affected by these uncertain boundaries.

Mr. Foster has replied to Mr. Giles that he would be glad to have him come to Randall county and look over the situation, but does not believe that the boundaries would be easily settled owing to the fact that most of the sections are fenced, and land owners would be reluctant now to move their fences.

There is considerable excess land in many of these sections, which Mr. Giles is interested in recovering for the State by settling the boundary lines.

An attempt was made several years ago to secure the passage of a bill through the legislature settling these boundaries but at that time members of the legislature thought the matter could be more easily settled in the courts of the counties.

The time for the coming of Mr. Giles will be announced later.

Red Cross Kits Are Received by Men in Service

The Randall County Chapter of the American Red Cross continues to receive letters from men who have received kits furnished and packed by local people. Pfc. E. E. Blanchard of the Marine Corps, who is a member of the 3rd Band Section writes, "I wish to express my thanks to your Chapter of the Red Cross as I received one of the fine kits prepared by you. I am proud of the Red Cross for what they and their representatives have done so far in this war. At present I am using the stationery and pencil that was included in the kit. The kit really was like a long letter from home."

It is known that kits have been received by boys in the Navy, the Marine Corps, and the Army, all of them on the sea or overseas.

CLARENCE BECKMAN

The News has been authorized to announce the candidacy of Clarence Beckman as a candidate for re-election to the office of County Commissioner, Precinct No. 2. Mr. Beckman is now serving the precinct as Commissioner, and his friends have urged him to seek re-election.

I feel that my experience in office makes me much better qualified to serve you in this office than I have been able to do in the past. This office is very important, and needs men of experience. I have devoted much of my time to the duties of the office, and if re-elected I shall continue the same policy of devoting as much of my time as necessary in order to efficiently administer the affairs of the precinct and county in an efficient manner.

Congress held its breath Friday when President Roosevelt presented the budget. The billions which the President seeks indicates that he is evidently thoroughly endued with the 4th term idea. He is seeking blanket approp iations which would give the President plenty of lee-way to spend money as he sees fit. Congress gave him such power in the past. He wants to continue this free hand spending. Furthermore, the President wants billions of dollars for his social peace-time program. The extravagance of the Roosevelt administration has been the subject of many uncomplimentary jokes during the past 11 years. But with the war debt mounting to an unbelievable figure this is no time for jokes about the President's spending. Congress will examine every item in the budget very carefully, and reject any appropriation which is extravagant. The people of the nation are willing to spend all of the money needed to win the war; but they would like to see the administration get down to brass tacks when it comes to other spending. Naturally this is election year, and a good time for free spending on the part of the fellow who wants to be re-elected. But this money must be paid back in the future, and money squandered now is hard to pay back in the future.

We believe that the War Department is allowing many young men to be unjustly treated by simply not furnishing identification badges to those who have been discharged from the armed forces because of physical defects, or could not get into the armed services because of these physical defects. We are told of young men here in Canyon who have been insulted time and again by unthoughtful people who did not know they were discharged, or could not pass the physical examinations. It was recommended months ago that badges be given these men. We recall that in London two brainless girls pinned yellow feathers on returned veterans who had been discharged after severe wounds. The British government did something about this by supplying identifications to returned men. First all people have no right to dub any one a slacker unless they know the man is really a slacker; and then they should turn the man over to the proper authorities rather than attempt to constitute themselves as sole judge and jury.

The general service act proposed by President Roosevelt will not be passed. Had he proposed this measure when the war started, it would have been accepted by both Congress and the people as a necessary war measure. But the President coddled the labor leaders too long. He could not hope to secure the passage of such a measure, especially in the face of the popular belief that the war will be over one of these days. Perhaps there is too much optimism as to the time the fighting will stop, but the public is sold on the matter of an early victory; many of the military leaders have promised victory in 1944; and no amount of talk on the part of the administration that the war may continue for years will convince the people that the general service act is needed.

Members of the Supreme Court of the United States, Justices Black and Murphy, have joined in a hot retort against Justice Frankfurter. Since all three are New Dealers, appointees of the President, and all most ardent supporters of Roosevelt before appointment, the internal row becomes more disgusting to the people. The Supreme Court is supposed to engage in higher things than political bickering. But since all three of these Justices are politicians rather than distinguished jurists, no wonder they are stooping to their old practices.

A Canyon man stated the other day that it made him tired to hear people complain about the sacrifices they were making to win the war. He stated that there was not a single individual in Randall county who was making any sacrifice which could really be counted as a personal sacrifice as compared with what the men on the fighting front are going through. Sure we do not have all the things we want. But no one is suffering because of the lack of these things, which could be classed as luxuries in the light of civilization 50 years, or even 25 years ago. A lot of folks think that they have done their full duty when they buy War Bonds. After all they are simply making an investment which will bring them a fair return on their money. The tragedy is that very, very few are investing more than their surplus, with no sense of sacrifice. Practically all who invest would buy investments which pay a higher rate of interest if these were available. The man was right. Let's don't crown ourselves with self attained glory until we do something worthwhile.

The old timers sure have their knives out for the government weather department at Amarillo which said that last week's blizzard was the worst in 52 years. Times, many times, are being reported when much worse blizzards have swept the Plains. Cattle are reported in other storms to have died by the thousands, while as a matter of fact only a comparatively few cattle actually died in this blizzard. The mercury did not reach zero last week, whereas it reached 16 below zero in the good old days when blizzards were blizzards. Be it far from The News to question these statements. As a matter of fact during the 33 years we have lived in Canyon it seems that we have seen worse snow storms; but have no government records to back up the statement. Some folks think that quite often time makes one exaggerate events of the past; but we have a lot of mighty fine citizens who have been in Randall county around the 50 year mark, and their memories of blizzards are vivid.

Shadows are being cast across the face of Europe which indicates that all will not be well when it comes to write the peace. Even before Adolph is whipped, Russia and Poland are staging a diplomatic war regarding the boundary between the two nations. Naturally Americans cannot understand such things. But Europe has been in some kind of a war 450 years out of the past 500 years. No wonder a lot of Americans are disgusted with European affairs. Since the world is now only a few hours in circumference, and bombers could reach Washington almost as easily as they are pounding Berlin, we must, will it or not, take our place in world affairs. The ugly head of isolationism is being raised, and politicians will attempt to convince us during this political campangn that we should forget Europe. We cannot do it; we must take our place among the nations of the world to maintain a just peace.

Regardless of criticism that may be directed against the administration and its handling of domestic problems, let every American keep in mind that no nation on the face of the earth has ever changed from peace work to war work so quickly and so efficiently. America is the arsenal of the United Nations. America is great because of free enterprise in the past, and will be great in the future because free enterprise will never bow to government regulation and interference of the bureaucrats once the war is won. The power of free enterprise which built our great industrial plants will demand the right to run these plants after the war, and the people will see to it that they have a right to run them.

Swaggering Count Ciano is said to have been shot. He is the unprincipled scoundrel who is said to have had millions of dollars on deposit in Switzerland, Spanish and South American banks ready for his escape from Italy. After playing along with Mussolini, his father-in-law, he joined forces to overthrow the big Muss. He pays with his life, the first of the international racketeers and murderers who will face the firing squad. There will be a lot more of these fellows to pay with their lives before civilized nations are satisfied with all of the misery which has been brought to us.

Since the old guard of the Republican party, headed by Herbert Hoover, is out to block Willkie, this latter gentleman has made up his mind to fight the old guard to the bitter end. He is out to stump every state in which opposition bobs up. In the meanwhile, nothing is being done in the Democratic party to nominate any one except the President—and that for a 4th term. It looks very much like the November battle of ballots will be a repetition of the 1940 fray—Roosevelt vs. Willkie.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

by BOYCE HOUSE

There's a story of a new justice of the peace who said, at the conclusion of the argument in his first civil case: "The court will take the matter under advisement until next Wednesday—and then will decide in favor of the plaintiff."

Having urged for two years that something be done about soldier voting, I'm glad that Austin is thinking about doing it. Of course, it would have been nice if this matter had been attended to at the regular session a year ago—and there would be no reason now to consider a special session on the subject, at a cost of $250,000 to the taxpayers of Texas.

Speaking to the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association recently, your columnist said:

"I know you love your country for I've been to Sonora, Ozona and Rocksprings; lived in Uvalde; married a Mertzon girl; and, as a boy, roamed over the vast open spaces of Southwest Texas in a covered wagon with my invalid father.

"One summer was spent in Del Rio, surrounded with the traditions of Judge Roy Bean; and I've been out in the sandy country, too, where Gib Morgan, the legendary driller, started a well on top of a hill and one night a wind came along and blew the hill away, leaving a 600 foot hole standing right out in the atmosphere!

"Seriously, yours is a region of boundless blue sky, of purple sage, of bracing air and of room enough to produce men who are big in body and heart—honest, courageous, loyal to a friend and direct in speech and action.

"All Texans admire your achievements and are proud of the supremacy of our State in the raising of sheep and goats. Many books have been written about cowboys, about mavericks and dogies; oil is coming into recognition at the hands of writers; yours is a story of Texas, however, that still awaits recording—and what a great and romantic story it will be!"

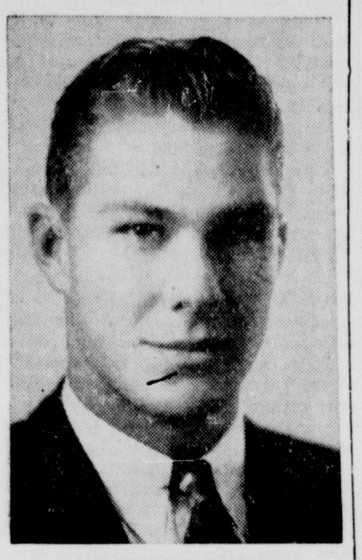
Canyon Air News



MILTON NEILSON

Hello, Folks:

The gang at the pilot house has been so busy that we have not had time to write to anyone outside the family.

The Canyon Aviation Service is one year old today. We have lived through one busy year and we are beginning another one which we hope will be just as busy.

Our accomplishments for the first year of our existence has been the development of West Texas State Field with six buildings which have a floor space of more than ten thousand square feet; a modern water system, mechanical shop, parts room, well equipped offices, comfortable pilots lounge, students ready room, electric lights, modern sanitation, modern gas facilities and many other things.

Have given training to more than one thousand students, and thanks be to our Maker, without a serious accident. They have flown about one million miles. We have a personnel of twenty-nine adults and the greater percent of them must be highly trained in their line of work.

We are the second largest institution in Randall county, that is if you judge us from students instructed and payroll expenditures. We are second to West Texas State College, the parent institution of which we are justly proud.

We are introducing our new assistant chief flight supervisor, Milton Neilson. He is one of the members of the first flying club to be organized in this county and one of the first owners of an airplane with a home base in the county. He has been in the flying school for eight months and has proved to us that he is made of the material that it takes to get the job done.

For the last two months the weather has been working hardships on our personnel, but with hearty co-operation of the efficient and highly trained commanding officers of the 350th detachment, we have trained the students assigned to us.

Until we see you again, the gang at the pilot house says, gardless of weather conditions, I have tried to keep these roads in good condition. Naturally all of you understand that unprecedented weather conditions have created a hardship on those of us who are charged with keeping the roads open. I am glad to report that the road fund of our precinct has sufficient funds to put them back in good condition as soon as the weather clears.

"All of you know that I have taken a great interest in the welfare of the entire county. I have tried to run the county government on as economical basis as possible. The fact that Randall county is in excellent financial condition is a distinct credit to those of us who have always stood for economy without hampering the work of any department.

"I hope to see each voter in my precinct before the July primaries. I shall be glad to discuss any phase of the county's business in which you are interested. I have always tried to seek the sound advice of the voters on the problems affecting the welfare of the county, and if re-elected, I shall certainly continue this policy," concluded Mr. Beckman.

sible will be done to right the unusual conditions caused by the bad weather.

"I shall appreciate having any taxpayer in my precinct check my record as Commissioner, and to investigate the work that has been accomplished during the time that I have served you.

"I shall attempt to see each voter in my precinct between now and the July primary. If I should miss any of you it will be entirely unintentional. I shall greatly appreciate your support durilng this campaign and vote in the election," concluded Mr. Hill.

well and efficiently and this will be our attitude if re-elected.

"In keeping with the spirit of the war effort, it may be impossible for me to see each voter. But if this is the case I shall deem it a great pleasure to meet each of you when you are in Canyon and to discuss with you any question you may have regarding the duties of this office and the manner in which I have filled the office. I shall appreeciate your support during the campaign and vote in the primary," concluded Mr. Cantrell.

A. B. Holt

shall continue me in this office.

"All of the voters understand that it will be impossible for candidates to spend precious gasoline and tires in making campaigns this year. Our first job is to win the war. I trust to see as many of you as possible and discuss with you the duties of this office. If I fail to see you, it will be because of conditions over which I have no control, and I shall appreciate your kind consideration of my candidacy," concluded Mr. Holt.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bellah have as guests, his aunt, Mrs. A. B. Wells and cousin, Mrs. Edwin Williams of Los Angeles, Calif., this week.

THE GREAT AWAKENING

A doctor's telephone rang one night, awakening him from fitful slumber. It was one of his regular patients, a man in a wild state of alarm.

"My wife, doctor," he shouted. "It's her appendix. You'd better come round and see her at once."

The doctor sighed and told the man to go back to bed.

"Give her some bicarbonate or ginger ale, and I'll look in tomorrow," he said. "She hasn't got appendicitis."

The husband became even wilder, insisting that she did have appendicitis.

"Well, she can't have!" the doctor shouted. "I took her appendix out three years ago, and I never heard of anyone having two appendixes."

"Ever hear of anybody having two wives?" the man asked bitterly.

WHAT HE LEARNED

Mrs. Nextdore: "What has your boy learned at school so far this term?"

Mrs. Nayber: "He has learned that he'll have to be vaccinated, that his eyes aren't really mates, that his teeth need repairing, and that his method of breathing is entirely obsolete.

TRAPPED

The tourist had stopped in a small rural village. He was preparing to resume his journey when he noticed the town constable watching him narrowly.

"What's the speed limit here?" he asked, thing it wise to be prepared.

"Never ye mind, young fellow," replied the rustic cop. "Jest yew try t' git out o' this town without bein' arrested.

Little Louise had made loud and repeated calls for more turkey at dinner. After she was told that too much turkey would make her sick. Looking wistfully at the fowl for a moment she said:

Canyon Hi Students Believe Community House is Necessary

Students from the Canyon high school believe the greatest need of Canyon is a community house where young people may gather with supervised dancing and other types of entertainment.

Supt. J. B. Speer brought members of the high school basketball team and other students to the Rotary Club luncheon Tuesday. Informal questions were asked the students by both Mr. Speer and members of the club on vital questions of the day.

The students believe that the constitution of the United States is sound, and worth fighting to preserve; that the soldiers should be given the right to vote; that OPA was doing a good job holding prices down, and should be continued for a period after the war; that it is too bad so many boys and girls are lured away from school by high wages and ready jobs during the war; that Canyon public schools and W. T. demonstration school should be united; that a beautification program should be put on in Canyon; that a community house was the most urgent need of Canyon; that communism was not being taught in any form in the Canyon schools.

Mr. Speer stated that he presented the students in this unrehearsed program in order to demonstrate that the young people of the community presented a problem of today; that while post-war planning was necessary, there was a job to be done now.

Visitors were: Clifton Janak, John Cowan, Bob Clements, Sandy Cross, Oran Thomas, J. E. Hill, C. M. McMurtry, E. Kancher, all of Amarillo.

"It's A Family Affair"

By ANITA DAVIS

"It's a family affair!" for 12 girls who have sisters in this college, and for 3 boys who also have sisters attending school here in good ole West Texas State College.

Among the first noticed sisters here are W. T.'s twins, Ruby and Opal Weast from Silverton. So identical that most people can't tell them apart, the freshman twins are residing in Cousins Hall and majoring in business administration.

Making their college home in Randall are Doris Finck, senior, and her little sister, Lonella, freshman. Though they don't room together, they are both from Tulia. Doris is majoring in intermediate education, and Lonella prefers mathematics.

If this reporter is still straight, there are four young ladies in college with one thing in common—their last name, Pugh. But they're not all sisters. L. Louise and Betty, staying at 402 24th Street, are sisters from Perryton. L. Louise, junior, is majoring in home economics; while Betty, secretary of the freshman, class, chooses art and home economics. Wanda and Edywna, from Sanford, are staying at Cousins Hall. Wanda, biology major, is a junior; and Edwyna, business major, is a freshman.

From Wellington comes two girls, Marilyn and Janice Leggitt, who room together in Randall. Both freshmen, Marilyn chooses business for her major, and Janice takes home economics.

Another one of these junior-freshman combinations which seem to be prevalent among these sisters is Vivian and Benelle Holt from Kirkland. Staying at Cousins, Vivian, junior, is a business major; and Benelle, freshman, is a history major.

Long-time residents of Canyon are Beulah and Martha Hannah Hammond, sophomore and freshman girls. Majoring in primary education is Beulah, while Martha Hannah is a home economics major. Their home address is 1211 5th Avenue.

Differing on places to room while in college are Helen and Ruth Studer from Canadian. Helen, senior, stays at Cactus Lodge and is majoring in business. Ruth, freshman, stays at Randall and also majors in business.

June and Marie Neal, freshman sisters from Dalhart, agree exactly on living quarters and majors. They stay at the Kerr House and both major in business.

Majoring in home economics are Florence and Cleora Conrad from Claude. Both freshmen, these sisters stay at Cousins Hall.

Well-known for their joint partnership in the Book Store are Lilia and Juanita Thornburg. Lilia, a graduate student in business administration, lives at 507 18th Street in Canyon. Juanita, sophomore also majoring in business, is from White Deer and stays at Randall Hall.

Staying at Cousins Hall, but not rooming together are Mildred and Opal Calliham from Conway, speech major, is a sophomore; and Opal, business major, is a freshman.

Turning to the brother-sister angle of this family business, we notice that Edward Fleming, freshman, and his sister, Orpha, sophomore, are from Follett. Orpha, staying at Cousins Hall, is a primary education major. Edward, residing at 2102 4th Avenue, is majoring in pre-engineering.

Then Frank and Wilma Wright add to our story. Living about a mile from town, Wilma is a junior majoring in intermediate education, and Frank is a freshman choosing agriculture for his major.

Both from Lockney are the Allens, Billy and Genelle. Staying at Randall, Genelle is a senior primary education major. Billy, a freshman, stays at Pueblo Courts and majors in chemistry.

West Texas State is proud of its sister and brother-sister combinations this year. You students whom we have met, we salute!

Thumbing Station Erected For Use of Service Men

Just north of Bob's cafe, on the highway, is the new "thumbing station" erected by Canyon Lions Club for the benefit of hitch-hiking service men. Any service man may use the station while he is waiting for a ride. The station was built under the supervision of Lion John Gillis and was placed in its present location by means of the combined strength of several members of the club. The club extends a cordial invitation to all service men to make use of the station, and requests all motorists who will to stop and pick up men at the station.

Lion Littlefield was in charge of the program at the Tuesday noon meeting. Lion Newman spoke on the subject of music, especially music on the U. S. O. programs for service men. Lion Mitchell Jones performed a psychological experiment in association of words.

Eldon McCarter was the guest of Lion Joe Findley. Reeves Donnell was guest of Lion Morris and presented a plan for the organization of a unit of the state guard at Canyon.

The West Texas-New Mexico Conference includes twelve schools and colleges. They are the University of New Mexico at Albuquerque, New Mexico Highlands University at Las Vegas, Eastern New Mexico College at Portales, Sacred Heart Training College at Las Vegas, New Mexico Military Institute at Roswell, New Mexico State Teachers College at Silver City, New Mexico College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts at State College, Sul Ross State Teachers College at Alpine, Amarillo Junior College at Amarillo, Texas College of Mines and Metallurgy at El Paso, Texas Technological College at Lubbock, Wayland College at Plainview and West Texas State College at Canyon.

These clubs are sponsored all over the nation by the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. The division assistant from this organization is Miss Amy Heminway Jones. Miss Jones will attend the Convention and bring with her the two main speakers.

At the regular meeting, held Tuesday, January 11, the president of the Club, Boone Todd, outlined the activities to take place on those two days. The Canyon Chapter of the A. A. U. W. has offered to take charge of the main event, which will be the banquet held on the night of Friday, February 25. Dr. S. H. Condron, the faculty adviser of the Club, has suggested the possibility of a comparatively small attendance due to the restricted traveling conditions at this time. However, all local residents are cordially invited to be present and the Convention is expected to be a good one.

FOOD FIGHTS for FREEDOM

I Serve the Basic Seven Each Day

TO SAFEGUARD MY FAMILY'S HEALTH

Here's a smart housewife . . . she knows the importance of good nutrition in wartime eating habits. She too realizes the essential part that food is playing in our fight for freedom. That's why she plans her menu wisely, keeping the seven basic food groups in mind as she shops. She keeps in mind the need for conserving and using left-overs, so that the waste of food in her home will be cut down. She's a victory housewife. She shops at Bellah's where she always gets full co-operation in her buying.

Canyonites Assail Chiefs' Defenses

Barely triumphant, Eagle hoopsters ended a dynamic skirmish in Friona's cracker-box gym Tuesday the eleventh, with only one point salving the difference between victory and defeat. The score was Canyon, 26; Friona, 25.

This, Canyon's nearest defeat of the season by Friona, was also the first game the Eagles have played on Friona's home court. In previous games Canyon hoopsters have defeated Friona by a large margin.

Deciding point in this tilt was a foul goal made in the last quarter by Leslie Gordon. Without this tally the game would have run into overtime and proffered a possible Eagle upset. Leslie also led the field in scoring with ten points. Friona "hot shot" was Frieder who made twelve of the Chief's scores.

Second stringers engineered a Friona defeat with a final count of 25 to 15. Principal scorer was Harley Hicks who racked up eight points.

W. W. Nicklaus of Canyon refereed the games.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

In time of war the first casualty is truth.—Boake Carter.

On what strange stuff ambition feeds.—Eliza Cook.

Too low they build who build beneath the stars.—Young.

The man who seeks one thing in life, and but one,
May hope to achieve it before life be done;
But he who seeks all things wherever he goes;
Only reaps from the hopes which around him he sows
A harvest of barren regrets.
—Meredith.

Ambition is no cure for love.—Scott.

Anger makes dull men witty, but it keeps them poor.—Lord Bacon.

All that glitters is not gold.—Cervantes.

Applause is the spur of noble minds, the end and aim of weak ones.—C. C. Cotton.

The beautiful rests on the foundations of the necessary—Emerson.

Society is now one polished hoarde,
Formed of two mighty tribes, the Bores and the Bored.
—Byron.

Everyone is the son of his own works.—Cervantes.

Care to our coffin adds a nail, no doubt;
And every grin, so merry, draws one out.—John Wolcot.

In this world a man must either be an anvil or hammer.—Longfellow.

"I want some grapes for my sick husband. Do you know if any poison has been sprayed on these you have?"

"No, ma'am; you'll have to get that at the druggist's."

Teachers Present Panel Discussion

With Mrs. Ray McReynolds presiding, the Parent-Teacher Association met on January thirteenth in the grade school study hall.

To begin the program, Sue Ann Moreman played a piano number, "Dancing Doll."

Using "Freedom from Want" as their topic, Dr. Ima Barlow of the history department of West Texas State College, Miss Helen White Moore of the English department of the Demonstration School, and Miss Novella Goodman, language arts teacher in the Demonstration School presented a panel discussion to the group. With Miss Barlow as director, the speakers brought out the fact that if we are to have freedom from want, our children must be educated and protected from poor working conditions and long hours; that, in order to have a satisfactory post-war world effective child labor laws must be made and enforced.

As a closing feature, the social committee served a tea in the old music room.

Farmers Receive Emblem Badges

As a reward for a gruelling period of initiation, thirteen future farmers received the bronze emblem of the greenhand last Tuesday in Chapter meeting.

Accepting this primary award were Jerry Bailey, Wilborn Brown, Alfred Dietz, Max Dutton, Eddie Harris, Norman Jones, Lloyd Lindsey, Wilton Lindsey, Ray McDonald, Vernon Ruggles, Carl Schroeder, Orville Turner, and J. T. Summar.

Having completed their first year of work, the following received the silver emblem of the chapter farmer: James Lair, Richmond Hales, Ross Bruner, Billy Thurman, Bill Jones, Sandy Oliver, Lewell Johnston, Lee Armstrong, Wilburt Wendelken, and Harold Erwin.

Sponsor, Mr. W. G. Sanderson, received a bronze wisdom pin.

"Why are you sobbing, my little man?"

"My pa's a millionaire philanthropist."

Well, well! That's nothing to cry about, is it?"

"It ain't, ain't it? He's just promised to give me $5 to spend for Christmas provided I raise a similar amount."

"And what did you say when your wife found a hair on your shoulder?"

"I told her the fellow who works next to me must have spattered some of his hair tonic on my coat."

By Bobbie Dowd

Although that dependable left hand of forward Don Standley didn't seem quite "in the groove" when the Eagles were downed by the Borger Bulldogs, it has, on an average, presented quite a record. Eddie has pulled out in front of the other Eagle Cagemen as far as scoring is concerned. He has racked up 151 points out of 19 games. That, confidentially, is a superb record for a high school basketeer.

Second place honors are now balanced between guard Max Bosley, and center Leslie Gordon, as each has a total of 99 points to his credit, while Bobbie Dowd is fourth with 86. Trailing in number of tallies but not behind in effort and ability is J. Spencer Winn, towering forward of the team. Thus far Spence has scored 54 points but he carries his share of the load by taking "re-bounds" and making set-up shots for his teammates.

From the two invitational basketball tournaments attended by the Eagles this year, the boys received eleven miniature basketballs. Max Bosley and Don Standley have won more honors than the other players, earning three this year. Leslie Gordon and Bobbie Dowd have two, and J. Spencer Winn, one.

After the recent blemishes on the Sandies' home-court record, the Canyon Eagles' record is a trifle more outstanding. Out of eight games played on their home court, one of them with Dimmitt, the Eagles have received no upsets.

This week furnishes the Eagle quintet with two more scheduled games. The first was played last Tuesday with the Friona Chiefs here. Another skirmish will be effected tonight between the Canyon squadsmen and Price Memorial Cardinals at Amarillo. Everybody who can, come!

EXCLUSIVE

Into a swanky church walked a shabby Negro. After due inquiry, and some difficulty, he located the rector and said to him: "Sah, Ah's like to join dis chu'ch." The rector was in a dilemma. "My good man," he said at last, "where do you live?" "Ah lives in Harlem," was the reply. "Then don't you think it would be wise for you to join a church in your own neighborhood?" "Yas, sah, but Ah desires to join dis chu'ch." The rector pondered. "My man," he said, "suppose you go home and pray over this important step?" This the Negro agreed to do. The next day he again appeared before the rector. "Rectah," he said, "Ah went home and prayed to de Lawd like you tole me, an' axed Him how Ah could get into dis chu'ch, and God done appear an' he say, 'Rastus, whaffo' you ax me how to get inter dat chu'ch? Why, man, fo' ten yeahs Ah been trying to get into dat chu'ch Myself.'"

"Why does a red-headed girl always marry a quiet fellow?"

"She doesn't. He just gradually gets like that."

Hunt Up Those Old Books

From Hawaii

In accordance with our principle of printing soldiers' letters, the Eagle's Tale quotes excerpts from a letter received last Saturday from Pvt. Kenneth Bosley, who is now stationed in the Hawaiian Islands.

Dear Mr. Speer:

This is a few words from one of your ex-students to say that I am still alive and feeling O. K. I hope you are feeling O. K., too.

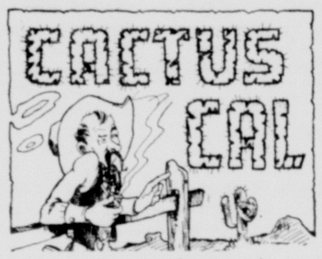
Mother told me that good old Canyon High had a pretty good basketball team this year. I wish I could have been there to attend the homecoming assembly for the ex-students on December 3rd.

Mr. Spear, if you would please tell the Eagle's Tale Staff how much I appreciate their paper I will be grateful. Mother sent the paper as a Christmas gift.

As you know this makes my first Christmas and New Year's away from home, but there are plenty more in the same position.

Write when you have time.

Yours Truly,
Pvt. Kenneth Bosley.



Guess what? I'm back again, even though I sure would like to go on a nice long picnic in this beautiful weather. Ah sweet dreams of youth, how they haunt me.

This column is honorably dedicated to the martyr of martyrs, Shirley Ann Newberry. It happened thus—in the stately room of the plane geometry class: Out of the chaos a deep and well learned voice spoke, "Shirley Ann, can you give me the answer to question No. 18?" Laughter pealed out clear as a bell and then more of the worthy scholars gave vent to their feelings. Presently Mrs. Knott said, "Shirley, what did you say, I can't hear you?" Shirley blushed and stammered, "I didn't say a word!"

There never seems to be a limit as to what these underclassmen can do. 'Course it could be that Charles Wright is just using his many talents (?) on some of the senior girls to further him in his career of 20th Century Wolf. Advice to the unwary: Better watch out, girls!

Goodness! They say you can't learn puppy love too young. Just ask Charles Schafer; he and Gwendolyn Phillips have the most interesting secret code. (Method of transmitting—eyes!)

It looks as if some of our dignified (?) seniors would surely learn that a "must have" to go to Amarillo in this kind of weather is a pair of galoshes. Now it is Cal's special privilege to say "I told you so" to Juanita Anderson. How do your hose and black pumps look with mud two inches thick on them?

Would you like to go on a wonderful "Treasure Hunt?" First go to your desk, dresser, and other likely places and collect all the old unfilled war stamp books you have put away and forgotten. Pull them out and finish filling them so they can do their part in winning the war. After all, bonds amass interest while stamps are never worth more than the purchasing price. Turn your books in on bonds today.

Fellow students—let us pledge ourselves to buy at least one plane in the present Buy-A-Plane campaign. Which of these shall we set as our goal?

Training Plane	$ 15,000
Pursuit Plane	$ 75,000
Ambulance Plane	$110,000
Medium Bomber	$175,000
Heavy Bomber	$330,000
Flying Fortress	$450,000

The Army Air Corps has offered to place within each plane so bought a dedicatory panel carrying the name and address of the school that financed the plane. Often members of air crews write the school that purchased the plane, telling the ship's name and deeds.

This drive continues until the close of school but let's reach the goal by February 15, the date of Canyon High School's Fourth War Loan Bond rally. Mrs. A. K. Knott is in charge of the Canyon High School campaign.

Cole Thurman, don't you and Mildred Simms know there is a rule against loitering in the halls to talk over old times?

I thought Christmas was over, but Wilborn Brown floored (or did he) Doris Meadows, by presenting her with a BE-autiful locket over the week-end. Well, better late than never!

It seems the Freshmen take things seriously too. Anyway, Charles Ponds and Gracie Boyd are finding each other good company these days.

Have you ever heard that the way to a man's heart is through mathematics? Well, I didn't either. Just the same, Zonelle Gregg can take the credit for originating the idea. Ask Bill Davis.

Hoopsters Attend Rotary Luncheon

Tuesday noon twelve members of the basketball squad of Canyon High School, their coach, Milton Sanders, and three students on the program, were dinner guests of the Canyon Rotary Club at the Methodist Church.

Superintendent J. B. Speer was in charge of the program, which consisted of a panel discussion, "Post War Planning for Canyon," by Don Standley, Manus R. Foster, Billy Jane Bonifield, and Ellen Sanders.

Members of the squad who attended the dinner were Don, J. Spencer Winn, Bobbie Dowd, Leslie Gordon, Max Bosley, J. Ray Hunter, Bob Copeland, Charles Taylor, Wallace Huff, Lindsey Taylor, Harley Hicks, and Earl Neff.

GRADE NOTES

Since the beginning of school, a total of $2690.90 in War Bonds and Stamps has been turned in by the grade school.

With this above quota record in sales of War Bonds and Stamps to encourage further sales in the New Year, grade school students have thrown themselves into the work of the Fourth War Loan Drive with a will.

As a part in their Junior Red Cross work, Mrs. Roscoe Davis's second grade has raised $1.50 for a subscription to a daily newspaper for the soldiers in the West Texas Hospital Unit. In addition, they are making scrapbooks of jokes and cartoons for our boys in service.

A new worker in their group is Pat McInroy, who has enrolled from Seattle, Washington.

Jim Bob McGehee, from Mrs. Bob Orton's first grade, was taken to an Amarillo hospital last Friday.

Claudine Beavers is a new pupil in Mrs. John Davis's room.

Mrs. Lucille Doughty, who was ill last week with influenza, returned to school Friday. To quote her, "The has been has come back." To show their happiness on her return the children in her third grade presented her with plenty of fruits to build up her strength. (There was also a bottle marked "root beer," from Mrs. Goodman, but can labels lie?)

Students in Mrs. Cousins's fourth grade have become members of the Junior National Audubon Society. At a recent meeting of their Bird Club, the following officers were elected: President, Dick Sanders; vice-president, Billy Jones; secretary, Truman Laughery; program chairman, Harrell Hill Slack.

With Don Standley as coach, fifth grade boys have organized basketball teams to play on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays.

5J has chosen as its captain, Sam Leonard; 5W Garland Butler; while Walton Byrd serves as general manager.

Maybe these grade school teams can show the high school boys some real playing and sportsmanship.

A visitor at the capitol was accompanied by his small son. The little boy watched from the gallery when the house came to order.

"Why did the minister pray for all those men, Pop?"

"He didn't. He looked them over and prayed for the country."

Seniors Consider Friday Festival

Assembly Program Fills Junior Class Discussion

Consideration of parties and assembly programs was chiefly the highlight of the class meetings last Friday morning.

Senior subjects for the period were the discussions of a party which will be held Friday night in the high school gym, of transportation to Carlsbad, of the senior play to be given in March, and the gift for the school which will be presented in the spring.

Juniors Plan Party

A victory party to be given Friday night in the grade school gym and an assembly program for which Ellen Sanders, chairman, and Joyce Sanders, Sandy Oliver, Harley Hicks and Billye Ponder were chosen, constituted the business in the junior class meeting last week.

The sophomore class decided to have a party Thursday night at 8:00 in the grade school gym.

Bernice Anderwald, Dorothy Gafford, Donna Aardol, Johnnie Marie Ford, Frances Gooch, Bill Davis, Edwin Huff, and James Rigsby compose the freshman committee to decide upon an assembly program to be presented by their class.

Committee Decides Program

Eighth grade students will have a party tomorrow night in the high school gym. The committee to decide their assembly program includes: Nancy Ann Nicklaus, Frances Standley, Tommy Hunter, and Wayne Davis.

Faye Dickerson, Suzanne Stephenson, Jerre Inman, and Jimmie Lindley make up the committee to plan the seventh grade assembly program.

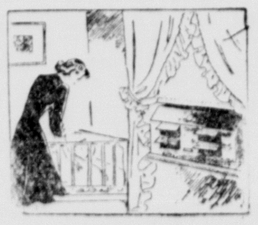
EYESTRAIN DAYS ARE HERE!

Call in the Home Lighting Warden

Shorter days and more evenings at home are bound to mean the use of more artificial light . . . heavier eye-duty . . . more risk of eyestrain. Improper lighting can cause more harm to eyes now than at any other time.



So when you are reading, caring ing for the little ones, playing games in the evening, or doing sewing for war needs, REMEMBER TO GUARD AGAINST EYESTRAIN with these few simple steps:

- CLEAN BULBS AND BOWLS OFTEN.
  Dust and dirt may steal as much as 30% of your light.
- USE SHADES WITH WHITE LININGS.
  Dark lamp shades or faded shades may rob you of as much as 50% of your light.
- ARRANGE YOUR LIGHTING PRIPERLY.
  You can often make one lamp serve two or more people effectively, by properly arranging furniture and lamps.
- USE THE RIGHT SIZE LAMP BULBS.
  If in doubt, consult your local electricial appliance dealer or see us regarding proper size of bulbs to use.

SELECTIVE SERVICE CHANGES

Occupational deferments generally will be denied 18 to 22-year-old registrants, fathers and non-fathers alike, unless they are engaged in activities in which deferment is specifically authorized, according to Selective Service. Furthermore, all registrants will be given pre-induction physical examination at least 21 days before being inducted. Therefore, the period three weeks in the enlisted reserve now granted by the army and the one-week period granted by the navy will be eliminated. These changes become effective February 1.

SOCIAL SECURITY FOR FARMERS

Social insurance for farm operators, farm workers, business and professional men, household workers, and employees of governmental and non-profit organizations was recommended by the Social Security Board in its eighth annual report. The board urged inclusion of these groups in an expanded social security program which would include insurance against costs of medical and hospital care without disturbing the present principle of free choice in selection of physicians or hospitals. The Board recommended that a comprehensive social insurance system should be set up now while earnings are "at record levels" in order to have it in full operation for the post-war period.

TO STABILIZE RATION BUYING POWER

Under the new ration token plan effective February 27, the housewife will be able to buy about the same amount of rationed processed foods and meats-fats as she can now. Point values will be adjusted so the individual's allotment of 60 points for buying meats and fats will buy the same amount as the present allotment of approximately 64 points. Similarly, under the token plan the 50-point allotment for processed foods will buy an amount equal to the present 48-point allotment.

PRE-WAR BABY CARRIAGES BACK

Pre-war model baby carriages, strollers, walkers, and pushcarts will re-appear on the market in about six weeks, according to WPB. Greater availability of steel makes possible the production of these pre-war models.

MORE FOOD FOR SCHOOL LUNCHES

America's school children have been assured by the Office of Price Administration more generous amounts of food for lunchroom and cafeteria meals under a new plan for providing rationed foods to schools. The new allotments were worked out by OPA in close cooperation with school lunch and nutrition experts of the Food Distribution Administration. The Government's school lunch program, which went into effect one year ago, is a war time measure to make sure that school children will have a well-planned and nutritionally appropriate noon meal.

ADVICE FOR SOLDIERS OVERSEAS

When writing to soldiers overseas, particularly those in the tropics, home folks may help contribute to their health, says the War Department, by reminding those overseas men of the necessity of following the advice of their medical officers.

TRACTOR PRODUCTION UP

Production of wheeled tractors in December was the largest for any month in two years—in excess of 20,000 as compared with 4,200 in December, 1942. However, according to the WPB, the current rate of production must be maintained in order to meet the tractor quota of 209,000 for the 12 months that will end June 30. This will not be easy because of the parts needed for tractor production are also used in landing craft, now in urgent demand by the armed services.

WORSE THAN EVER

Mr. Ginsburg had been complaining of insomnia. "Even counting sheep is no good," he sighed to his partner in the clothing business.

"It is only good if you count up to 10,000," replied his partner. "Try that tonight."

But the next morning Mr. Ginsburg was still complaining.

"I did not sleep a wink," he said. "I counted the 10,000 sheep, I sheared 'em, combed the wool, had it spun into cloth, made into suits, took 'em to the city, and lost $20 on the deal. I didn't sleep a wink."

BEFORE PEARL HARBOR

"Just tell me one good reason why you can't buy a new car now," said the persistent automobile salesman.

"Well, I'll tell you, man," replied the farmer, "I'm still paying installments on the car I swapped for the car I traded in as part payment on the car I own now."

PERSONAL SATISFACTION

You'll be pleased as anything at the grand appearance of the clothes you send in to us for cleaning and pressing.

We do quality work which is still giving the best satisfaction.

Like everyone else, we're short of help—so allow us plenty of time to do our best.

PORK

Pork is one of the most attractive meat buys at the present time, because of the slight reduction of points on most pork articles.

According to authorities meat has long been recognized as a body builder because per serving it has a protein value of utilizable protein greater than many other protein rich foods.

Now modern nutritional research has proved the value of lean meat as a protective food. Lean pork is especially rich in certain vitamins of the B complex, as thiamine, ribaflorin and niacin.

Pork contains many of the minerals common in meat—iron, phosphorus and copper. It is found that a 4-ounce serving of lean meat furnishes about one-sixth of the daily requirements of phosphorus and almost one-fifth of the iron. Meat also contains many other less known minerals that are important to health.

All pork must be thoroughly cooked therefore there is a loss in vitamin B, but even so the muscle cuts of pork remain a good source of this vitamin because a 4-ounce serving supplies 40% to 50% of the day's requirement.

To lessen loss of weight and size of roasting fresh pork, use a low even temperature—350 F and for baking hams 250F to 300F. Use drippings in making gravies and the extra fat for seasoning vegetables.

Pork also may be cooked by broiling, parbroiling, braising and cooking in water. Only smoked pork cuts are broiled and panbroiled. Both fresh and smoked pork may be braised or cooked in water. Pork is not used in making stews.

- Produce the Food Needed for War
- Keep Machinery Running Smoothly
- Use a Balanced Fuel for Power at Lowest Cost

YOUR TRACTOR is your obedient servant who works from sun up to sun down and asks nothing in return but fuel to keep it diligently serving. Is it asking too much for you to repay it with quality gasoline so that it can keep on the front line of defense, working to win this war? It can't declare a strike . . . it won't even maliciously sit down on the job . . . it will do the only thing it can do when unjustly treated—lose its smooth-working efficiency. This not only impedes your progress, but seriously hampers the progress of the war. That tractor of yours is part of America's powerful "field artillery." It is a strong agent in supplying the food needed to successfully carry thru until the end.
